Proof of Whitewater River Outfitter Endorsement in the Field

Persons conducting whitewater river trips must be able to show proof of operating under a valid outfitter Endorsement to law enforcement officials; WAC 308-312-100. The proof of license must be available at either the site where the vessels are put into the river or the site where the vessels are taken out of the river. A photocopy of the Business License showing "Whitewater River Outfitter" will be accepted as proof of having a license.

Whitewater River Guides

RCW 79A.60.430(1)(i) requires Whitewater River Outfitters to ensure that each vessel on a whitewater river trip is operated by a guide who meets the requirements set in RCW 79A.60.430(2) Those requirements are:

1. Be at least 18 years of age.
2. Have successfully completed a lifesaving training course that meets the standards set by the State Parks and Recreation Commission for such training.
3. Have completed a guide training program on whitewater rivers that was conducted by a qualified guide instructor (see below for the qualification to be a guide instructor). The guide training program must have run for a minimum of 50 hours on a whitewater river and have covered the following:
 - Equipment preparation and boat rigging
 - Reading river characteristics including currents, eddies, rapids, and hazards
 - Methods of scouting and running rapids
 - River rescue techniques, including emergency procedures and equipment recovery
 - Communications with clients, including paddling and safety instruction
4. Have completed at least one trip on the entire section of a whitewater river before carrying passengers for hire in a vessel on that section of river.

Whitewater River Guide Instructors

The training program for whitewater river guides must be conducted by a qualified guide instructor. The qualification for an instructor are in RCW 79A.60.430(3): This person must have traveled at least 1,500 river miles, 750 of which must have been while acting as a guide.

RCW 79A.60.430(4) requires a person conducting guide training on whitewater rivers to issue proof of completion to any guide completing the training program if it is requested by the guide trainee.

Federal Regulation

You may also need to comply with federal Uninspected Passenger Vessel Licensing. Contact the Coast Guard (206) 220-7210.

Commercial outfitters must have a federal permit for trips in federally regulated areas. The state license is needed to receive a federal permit. Contact the U.S. Forest Service (360) 956-2400.
